

HR POLICY DOCUMENT

1. Casual Leave

Employees are eligible for 12 casual leaves in a calendar year.

Casual leave can be used for personal work or short-term needs. Employees should apply for casual leave through the HR portal whenever possible.

2. Sick Leave

Employees are eligible for 10 sick leaves in a calendar year.

If an employee is absent for more than two consecutive working days because of illness, the employee may be asked to provide a medical certificate.

3. Work From Home

Employees may work from home for up to 2 days per week with prior manager approval.

Employees working from home must remain available during normal working hours and attend required meetings.

4. Working Hours

Normal working hours are 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday to Friday.

Employees should follow the attendance policy and inform their manager if they expect to be late.

5. Annual Leave

Employees receive 15 days of annual leave per calendar year.

Annual leave should normally be requested at least 7 days in advance, subject to manager approval and business requirements.

6. Leave Approval

Leave requests are reviewed by the employee's reporting manager.

Submitting a leave request does not automatically mean that the leave is approved.

Employees should wait for approval before making non-emergency plans.

7. Public Holidays

The company observes 12 public holidays each calendar year.

The holiday calendar is published by the HR department at the beginning of each year.

8. Employee Benefits

Eligible full-time employees may receive health insurance, provident fund benefits, and other benefits according to company policy and applicable rules.

9. Performance Review

Employee performance is generally reviewed twice a year.

Performance reviews may consider work quality, productivity, teamwork, attendance, and achievement of assigned goals.

10. Resignation Notice Period

Employees are normally required to provide 30 days' notice before resignation, unless a different notice period is specified in their employment agreement.

The final working date must be confirmed by the reporting manager and HR department.
